this is not a book about french gardens it is the story of a man travelling round france visiting a few selected french gardens on the way owners intrigues affairs marriages feuds thwarted ambitions and desires the largely unnamed ordinary gardeners wars plots and natural disasters run through every garden older than a generation or two and fill every corner of the grander historical ones families marry gardeners are poached political allegiances forged and shattered the human trail crosses from garden to garden they sit in their surrounding landscape not as isolated islands but attached umbilically to it sharing the geology the weather food climate local folklore accent and cultural identity wines must be drunk and food tasted recipes found and compared the perfect tarte tartin pursued none of these things can be ignored or separated from the shape and size of parterre fountain herbaceous border or pottager so this is a book filled with stories and information some of it about french gardens and gardening but most of it about what makes france unlike anywhere else from historical gardens like versailles vaux le vicomte and courances to the kitchen gardens of the michelin chef alain passard there will be grand potagers like villandry and la priere d orsan and allotments and back gardens spotted on the way monty also celebrates the obvious french associations of food and wine and finds gardens dedicated to vegetables herbs and fruit it is a book that any visitor to france whether gardeners or not will want to read both as a guide and an inspiration it is a portal to get under the french cultural skin and to understand the country in all its huge variety and disparity a little better
